CCGA is a newly designated state college in the 35-member University System of Georgia. Located on the Atlantic Ocean, the College has campuses in Brunswick and Kingsland, Georgia. Presently, the College employs over 200 faculty and staff and serves 3,000 students in pre-baccalaureate and baccalaureate degree programs. The College has adopted a new Strategic Master Plan that anticipates growth to 6,000 students by 2020. The College also provides lifelong learning programs, participates in economic development within the College service area and has strong partnerships with K-12 schools. The College is located in a vibrant coastal region with historic communities and lovely beaches combined with strong economic and civic bases. The institution has a rich history of community engagement and exceptional academic offerings which provide an outstanding array of opportunities for young professionals, traditional students and adult learners. The College has recently become a baccalaureate degree granting institution with a more traditional academic focus; bachelor's degree programs in Business Administration, Early Childhood Education, Middle Grades Education, and Nursing will be offered beginning in the 2009-2010 academic year. Visit the College website at www.ccgga.edu.

Review of applications will begin immediately. Applicants should submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae, unofficial transcripts, and the names of three professional references to Facultyjobs@ccga.edu or to the address below.
