

Brunswick and The Golden Isles are just a one hour drive north of Jacksonville and a one hour drive south of Savannah. Brunswick-Golden Isles Airport in Brunswick is served by ASA/The Delta Connection, with daily round-trip regional jet service to Atlanta. Private pilots may use Brunswick-Golden Isles Airport, McKinnon St. Simons Island Airport or Jekyll Island Airport. Jacksonville and Savannah airports also serve this area. Easy access by automobile is afforded by I-95, GA 520 and US Highways 17 and 341. For boaters, Brunswick and The Golden Isles are on the Intracoastal Waterway, and there are numerous full-service marinas located in the area.

Brunswick & The Golden Isles are an excellent vantage point from which to enjoy all of Georgia's coast.

An hour north is Savannah, Georgia, known for its historic downtown squares and the shops and restaurants along its waterfront district. An hour west is Okefenokee Swamp Park, with guided tours of a vast and mysterious wilderness the Native Americans called "land of trembling earth." Between Darien and Brunswick is Hofwyl-Broadfield Plantation, offering a glimpse into the rice plantation culture that flourished along Georgia's coast in the early 1800s. Just south lies the port of St. Marys, Georgia, departure point for excursions to Cumberland Island, a national seashore famous for its abundant wildlife and untouched natural beauty. Plus, numerous festivals, fairs, and special events, unique to the people and culture of the coast, that can be enjoyed year 'round. ## Sea Island

Sea Island Club members and guests of both The Cloister and The Lodge at Sea Island have several dining options from which to choose:

The Cloister *

100 Cloister Drive, (912) 638-3611

100 Hudson: An inviting, family-oriented atmosphere with panoramic views of the Black Banks River. 100 Hudson reflects an airy, light-filled aura by day, and in the evening, its western exposure captures dramatic sunsets over the marshes beyond. Outdoor dining is available in season. Menu options favor Southern regional fare and seafood.

Black Banks River Bar: Watch the Black Banks River course by as you enjoy great food and drink with friends in this energetic environment. The simple elegance of its wood topped tables and bar combined with beers on tap, an extensive list of wines by the glass, single malt scotches, and a fine selection of bourbon and whiskey make this The Cloister's premier casual gathering place. The River Bar's menu features traditional pub favorites. River Bar specialties include your favorite Southern drinks: Mint Julep, Plantation Punch and Front Porch Lemonade, to name a few. Outdoor seating during the spring and summer adds a relaxing touch to this inviting destination.

Georgian Room: Fine details, including hand painted china, silver flatware and European linens, grace the presentation of an impressive wine list and Refined American cuisine. Among its features are a stately fireplace with a carved stone mantel, gold and crystal chandeliers and impeccable tableside service.

Big George's Raw Bar and Grill: Sea Island's newest and most casual restaurant - a classic Southern seafood house: oysters, clams, and claws from the raw bar, fish and chips, seafood specialties, with choices for landlubbers, too. Big George's overlooks the dunes of Sea Island Beach, and features indoor and outdoor wrap-around bars.

The Lodge at Sea Island *

100 Retreat Avenue, (912) 638-3611

Colt & Alison: High-back leather chairs and cozy banquettes invite you to relax while enjoying the panoramic views of Plantation Course's 18th hole and the glow of a wood-burning fireplace. Colt & Alison devotees savor the finest USDA wet- and dry-aged beef, along with seafood from both the local area and around the world, all masterfully paired with an extensive selection of wines by our resident sommeliers. Tableside specialty preparations complete the experience as our expert servers deftly create such memorable dishes as Caesar salad, steak au poivre and bananas foster.

Oak Room: This oak-lined venue's relaxed pub ambience comes from its hand painted murals, leather ceilings, wood-burning fireplace and outdoor terrace with sprawling views of the Plantation Golf Course and St. Simons Sound. The Oak Room's expanded menu ranges from local shrimp and to a classic Cobb salad and southern regional favorites. Relax for a while with beers on tap, an extensive wine selection, an array of single-malt scotches and a large selection of cigars from our temperature-controlled humidor.
