

College Receives Donation

Susan Hancock The Brunswick News

May 22, 2012

College of Coastal Georgia in Brunswick recently announced that HunterMaclean, a law firm with offices in Brunswick and Savannah, has pledged $12,500 to help fund a new scholarship for undergraduate students. The Leadership Through Service Scholarship will provide support for service-learning participants enrolled in a bachelor's degree program in business or psychology at College of Coastal Georgia.