Associate of Science in Nursing: End of Program Student Learning Outcomes Results for 2025-2026	Results
1. Demonstrate critical thinking through the nursing process, as evidenced by use of the following skills: Anticipation of client needs and outcomes Ethical Decision Making Evaluation of client care and treatments Initiates client care independently, within the scope of practice Prioritization of client care Self-regulation	Met
2. Provide safe, evidence-based, client-centered care for diverse groups of clients through the lifespan with common, well-defined health problems in structured settings in health care facilities and within the community.	Met
3. Practice therapeutic and professional communication, while caring for clients and collaborating with members of the healthcare team.	Met
4. Demonstrate professional competency in the following areas: Accountability Career Readiness Informatics Integrity Leadership Quality Improvement Technology	Met

* For more detailed information, please contact the School of Nursing & Health Sciences.